Jerry O'Sullivan

has been widely hailed as America's premier uilleann piper. His reputation for technical and melodic mastery of the instrument, a bagpipe known for its subtlety and expression, is unsurpassed in the United States. Jerry is widely recorded on the tin whistle, the low whistle, the Highland Pipes and the Scottish smallpipes.

Katie Murray

was born in London to Irish parents. At age 10, she moved to Co. Mayo and immersed herself in the South Sligo music scene. As a teen she took lessons with Michael Hurley at the Coleman Centre and attended sessions and local summer schools which influenced her to cultivate a rhythmic style, synonymous with the region.

PJ Hernon

is a traditional Irish musician renowned for his playing of the melodeon and accordion. He was born into a family rooted in traditional music in Connemara. He has won many All-Ireland titles on the melodeon at the Oireachtas and Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann. PJ has played with Shaskeen Céilí Band and was a founding member of The Swallow's Tail Céilí Band. He lives in Co. Sligo and has close associations with the Coleman Music Centre.
